Instructions for Using this Record Book

This book is designed to be the place where you keep records on your project. Read through the book carefully and complete all sections. It is important that you do your own work, but ask your 4-H leader, Extension agent, parents, or other 4-H volunteers for help when you do not understand something.

1. Obtain the appropriate record book based on the project you selected.
2. Read through this book and familiarize yourself with the kinds of records you will need and where information should be recorded. Discuss the book with your parent and/or 4-H leader.
3. Complete the essential information when you first start your project, such as the cover page and the project planning pages. Share your goals with your 4-H leader.
4. Keep your records up-to-date. Record information as it occurs. Consider setting aside specific times during the project when you will work on your record book and have those pages signed at the start of the 4-H year.
5. Write neatly and legibly. Use only one color of ink. This record book is PDF writable and may be completed digitally or hand-written.
6. Include at least one photograph of you with your project, but do not include more than two pages of photos. Additional clippings should be displayed in a scrapbook, not this record book.
7. Maintain your book in a 3-ring notebook/binder or folder.
8. Write a project story that captures what happened during your project. Discuss your goals, your activities, your challenges, and your accomplishments. Project stories must be at least ten sentences; more experienced 4-H members' stories should be considerably longer and more thorough.

Authors: 4-H Youth Development Agents Kelly Mallory, Kaci Coppedge, Cyndi Estienne, Mary Elizabeth Williams, Jocelyn Dailey, Sam Leech, Cornelia Estep, and Leslie Prillaman; Agriculture and Natural Resources Agent Carrie Swanson; 4-H volunteers Bertha Durbin, Janine Wilson, Lindsey Williamson and Sandra Turner; Extension Animal Science Specialist Mark Wahlberg; Extension Equine Specialist, Celeste Crisman, and Associates, Sandy Arnold and Leona Ransdell; and Extension Dairy Science Specialist Dave Winston.

Project Planning and Goal Setting for the Rider/Handler

This page should be completed at the start of your project, and you should share it with your 4-H leader.

Set at least three goals for yourself to accomplish this year with your project animal.

1. What do you want to learn and accomplish?

2. What new activities do you want to try?

3. What plan of action will you take to reach these goals stated above?

4. Will you be earning income or barter work to directly offset expenses for your project?
If so, identify how.

Please tell us about your project (check all that apply)

- I own my project
- I borrow my project
- I lease my project
- I board my project
- I stable my project at home

Project Name(s)

Project Planning and Goal Setting for the Animal

1. What factors helped you to select your project and why (purpose, breed, age, cost, location of animal, etc.)?

2. Where will the project be stabled? If boarding your project, name location and factors which helped you select the facility.

3. Describe a plan for your horse's activities (training, conditioning, schooling, showing, pleasure, trail riding, etc):

4. Identify any potential facility or land improvements (barn, fencing, pasture management, watering systems, etc.) if this affects your project.

5. Budget Projection. Anticipate your potential expenses and income.

Animal Care and Management (one chart for all projects)

An animal project requires regular care and management. List the things necessary to take care of your project. Identify if certain tasks are carried out by anyone if other than you (ex: stable/farm managers, horse trainer, vet, farrier, etc).

Include the following:

- Feeding and watering practices
- Grooming (clipping, trimming, hoof care, etc.)
- Health practices and medicines
- General management (cleaning living area and feed pans, tack, halter breaking, training, etc.)

Daily – Things done every day
Weekly – Things done once a week
Monthly – Things done once a month
Yearly – Things done one time or occasionally throughout the year

Pasture Analysis and Expenses

PASTURE ANALYSIS

In your horse's grazing pasture(s):

What type of grass represents the highest volume? _____

Are these grasses warm or cool season? _____

What weeds can be identified throughout the year? _____

Do you spray for weeds? _____ If so, with what product? _____

Will you re-seed this year? _____ If so, when, how and with what type of seed? _____

To what height do you mow your pasture(s)? _____

If a soil analysis was ordered, answer the following questions:

Date of analysis: _____ Date of treatment: _____ pH level of soil: _____

Summarize the suggested fertilizer and treatment: _____

(You may wish to attach the soil sample analysis to this record)

Horse Pasture Management Questions:

Where your horse is kept, how many horses graze per acre? _____

Do you practice rotational grazing? _____

Do you have sacrifice lots/paddocks? _____

How many hours will your horses typically graze per day? Fall: ____ Winter: ____ Spring: ____ Summer: ____

How is water provided to your horse in the pasture? _____

Do the horses have shelter in this pasture? _____ if so, describe: _____

Describe the type of fencing used: _____

Would you make improvements to water or fencing? ____ if so, explain: _____

Who does the majority of the pasture maintenance (mowing, fertilizing, spraying, etc.) _____

PASTURE MANAGEMENT EXPENSES

Maintaining a pasture requires fertilizer, lime, seed, mowing (labor and fuel), repairing fence boards, etc. Estimate the cost of providing pasture for your horse(s). Divide the cost by the number of horses using the pasture. If you are boarding, ask the farm manager to help you assess and estimate expenses. See your Extension agent for soil testing kits. List equipment purchases and assets on page 9.

Item	Description	Cost
Products and services: soil test, hay analysis, fertilizer, lime, seed, herbicides, pesticides
Equipment: farm equipment, repairs, fuel, rentals, fencing, water, gates (new or repair)
Labor
	TOTAL EXPENSES	=
	NUMBER OF HORSES ON PASTURE	÷
	COST PER HORSE	=
	MONTHS PER YEAR	÷ 12
	MONTHLY COST PER HORSE	=

Hay Analysis

Next to water, forages should be the majority of your equine's nutrient intake for proper digestion. A visual analysis of your hay is of daily importance; however, a chemical analysis will give you the specific nutrient content for each cutting of hay and will help you to determine a proper balanced ration for an adequate diet.

VISUAL ANALYSIS:

Give a visual analysis of a cutting of hay that you are currently feeding your horse to answer the following.

Date of visual analysis: _____

Type of hay (timothy, fescue, mixed, orchard, etc): _____

Maturity and leafiness (bloom, amount of seedhead shown, and stems vs. leaves):

Color (describe a shade of greens, yellows, or browns): _____

Odor and condition (describe the smell, dust-free, moisture, temperature): _____

_____ (DO NOT feed musty, dusty or moldy hay)

Foreign materials (other plants and weeds – note what is found): _____

CHEMICAL ANALYSIS:

You may want to order a hay analysis from one cutting of hay that you are currently feeding to your horse. Take several samples from at least ten bales of one cutting, mix them together and send to a forage lab of your choice in a clean, tightly sealed, quart-sized plastic bag. Extension agents should have a hay probe available in order to obtain a hay core sample.

Type of hay tested: _____ Date of test: _____

Calculate Monthly Cost of Feeds

Use this as a worksheet to calculate the monthly cost for grain, hay, and supplements. Carry these costs forward to the following page to calculate the annual cost of feeding your animal. Keep in mind, these amounts could vary with grazing seasons and equine nutritional needs (workload, condition, etc.) therefore, use copies of this worksheet to recalculate totals as changes occur.

Grain

Cost of a bag of grain: $ _____ ÷ _____ lbs in the bag = $ _____ per lb

Amount fed: _____ lbs per day X _____ days (in month) = _____ lbs

Monthly cost of grain: $ _____ X _____ lbs =
(Cost per lb of grain) (Total amount fed) (Monthly Cost of grain)

Hay

Cost of a bale of hay: $ _____ ÷ _____ lbs per bale = $ _____ per lb

Amount fed: _____ lbs per day X _____ days (in month) = _____ lbs

Monthly cost of hay: $ _____ X _____ lbs =
(Cost per lb of hay) (Total amount fed) (Monthly cost of hay)

Supplements

Cost of the jar of supplements: $ _____ ÷ _____ oz in container = $ _____ per oz

Amount fed: _____ oz per day X _____ days (in month) = _____ oz

Monthly cost of supplements: $ _____ X _____ oz =

- Goals you accomplished. If you accomplished your goals, how did you do so?

Other examples that you may consider writing about include: something that happened that was funny, sad, or exciting; challenges you faced and how you overcame them; who helped you with your project and how they contributed; things you are most proud of. Feel free to relate your 4-H experience to other parts of your life (school, home, family, friends, etc.). Senior members' stories should be at least 10 sentences long, well thought out, and talk in depth about your 4-H project year.
